Moore's NON- LEAKABLE Fountain Pens

THE BEST FOUNTAIN PEN EVER MADE

All Pens Are Shipped Filled Ready for Use

These Pens, being constructed upon entirely different principles from other Fountain Pens, are, without doubt, the nearest perfection of any pens ever manufactured. All the undesirable features of other Fountain Pens have been eliminated. Every person that has carried a Fountain Pen realizes the necessity of carrying it in the pocket POINT UP, as directed, or their clothing will soon be badly soiled with ink; also, their hands when using it. NOT SO WITH THESE PENS. Being AIR and INK TIGHT, they can be carried in ANY POSITION IN ANY POCKET when filled with ink, and cannot leak—a feature which Fountain Pen users fully appreciate. Ladies can carry them in their purse or hand-bag with perfect safety, which they cannot do with other styles of Fountain Pens. Every Pen is Guaranteed as Represented or Money Refunded.

History of Publications

LL the present publications in Phillips are more or less directly the outgrowth of one — the old Philo Mirror. The Philo Mirror, a quarterly, was first printed in 1854, after existing for seventeen years in manuscript form. These early Mirrors, though rather thin, are of surprisingly high literary merit; indeed, little improvement in quality was ever made in the forty years of the paper's existence. The size, however, was gradually doubled, tripled, and quadrupled, until by the early Eighties it had become a huge affair of over a hundred pages, the greater part consisting of Pot-Pourri and Class Book matter, which, first creeping in towards the end of the Sixties, had grown out of all proportion and choked the "literary" development. The Mirror grew fatter and fatter, till at last, in 1892, the absurdity of issuing a Pot-Pourri three times a year was realized, and the clumsy old Philo Mirror made over into two new publications.

The monthly Phillips Andover Mirror, edited by a board selected from the entire school, succeeded to the literary part, and an annual, at first called the Masque and published by Philo, to the pot-pourri. The Mirror, though it has undergone many changes and alterations, has appeared regularly for the ten years, and seems now to have settled into a permanent form. It fills, or ought to fill, an important place in school life. One of the best of the recent changes in the Mirror is the increase from seven to nine issues a year. The Masque appeared for the first and last time in 1893, clad in most magnificent attire. But the days for the debating societies to control the publications were past: the school had grown, and although perhaps Philo herself had never before been so prosperous as then, her comparative influence was nothing to what it had been thirty or forty years before. The foundation of Forum, too, made the continuance of the existing conditions impossible.

In 1894, the Pot-Pourri appeared published by Philo and Forum together, since which date it has been edited, like all the other publications, by an independent board.

The Phillipian was first issued as a fortnightly editorial and news sheet in 1878. In the twenty-four years of its existence it has undergone many improvements, alterations and enlargements until it is now a bi-weekly newspaper notable as one of the most successful periodicals of its kind in the country.

Strange to say, Andover had no Senior Class Book until 1897, when the present book sprang into existence. It fully supplies the long felt want, and is a credit to the school.

Andover maintains several publications, but no more than her position demands. They form an indispensable branch of the school life and cannot be neglected, for their strength or weakness reflects directly upon the name of the school. Realizing this, the school as a whole is gladly giving them that support which they deserve, and upon which their existence depends.

Robert Lincoln Clark.

J. R. Williams, '03

Delight of the "Preps."

The New Gym.

Two would-be professionals.

Washington, '02, Sillick, '02

The modern Shylock.

"Chap"

"Be natural! Even an ass never pretends to be a horse, neither should a dude try to be an ass. He doesn't have to."

I. G. Howard, '02

"He did nothing and did it well." Hurlburt, '03

King of the "Preps." Thomson, '05

"A ladder, a ladder, my kingdom for a ladder." Liggitt, '03

"Hello! Central. Give me Lowell." Sumner, '02

"His years are but young, his experiences old." Scullin, '03

"Silence is more eloquent than words." Kirkpatrick, '03

"We have by no means an inconvenient number of friends."
"The Lindbergs"

"Talk less, listen more." Kelley, '03

"I think my chances are excellent for making the Phillipian."
Kittredge, '04

L. G. Howard, '02

A little lower than the angels. Gurley, '02

"I am fearfully and wonderfully made." Silleck, '02

"One event happens to them all." Those who get ten demerits

(Daily to Bancroft men) — "Hello fellows! Corking day, isn't it?"
Mr. Lansing

FORUM : — “ So Oliver Wendell Holmes was not a member of Philo. I told you so.”

MORSE, '03, (translating — Nous avons perdu recemment quatre cent dollars.) “ We have recently lost four cents.”

MR. STONE : — “ Yes, your translation is worth about that.”

“ Say, fellows, what are those little square glasses with numbers on them down in the Post Office ? ” Taylor, '05

“ Yes,” said Howard, looking at Bill Taylor’s smart vest, “ I had one like that but I lost the ticket.”

“ Two souls with but a single thought,
Two hearts that beat as one.”

Gilbert, '03, Hurlburt, '02

“ Here ! There ! Devil may care,
Where my sword may lead I’ll follow.”

White, '02, moving to the Ricker House

“ I don’t think we have been introduced.” Kinney, '02

“ Marriage is a desperate thing.” Trude, ex-04

“ He has a beautiful smile from ear to ear.” Reynolds, '03

QUESTION : — Why is the new athletic field like the prettiest Fem. Sem. in town ? ”

ANSWER : — Because they are both out of sight.

COHN, '03 — “ We can’t make anything out of the maps, can we ? ”

PROF. FORBES : — “ No, I don’t think there will be much financially.”

“ Fill all the bones with aches.” Andover Doctors

History of the Year

FALL TERM

N and about the eighteenth of September last occurred the one hundred and twenty-third invasion of Andover, Mass., incoming coaches and cars were filled to overflowing, and the town woke up.

By October first we were settled down, and the arduous task of photographing the Prep. class, among others, had been accomplished with only one Hitch.

The football squad was soon out, and on the slender foundation of two veterans a very creditable team was built up. A tie game with Needham A. A. was premature, as the team was not yet itself, but the second game of the season came in the shape of a victory over Somerville, 5-0.

Throughout the year Dr. Bancroft had been ailing, and on Friday, the fourth of October, a gloom was cast over the school by his death.

The annual Fall Meet was pulled off very successfully, and McGovern broke the record for the pole vault.

The football team disappointed many by its defeat at the hands of both Harvard and Yale Fresh., but took a wonderful brace at the end of the season, and held the vastly heavier Exeter team down to five points.

Phillips Street put an excellent team into the field for the inter-street games, and successfully wiped it up with all her rivals.

An excellent vaudeville entertainment was followed by the regular concert of the Musical Clubs, and — Christmas vacation was upon us. Whereupon we all went home, with the possible exception of any Fiji Islanders or South Africanders in our midst.

WINTER TERM

The Hockey Team opened the season at New York the day before the term commenced. Our St. Paul opponents won narrowly, 2-1, but with the exception of a bare defeat at Harvard's hands the team won its every other game. Even Brown went down before it, to the tune of 7-1.

As early as the Fall Term some interest had been shown in basket ball, and during the winter months a team was formed which had lots of fun with its numerous opponents, going through its schedule without a defeat.

February witnessed Andover's victory over Exeter in the Relay Race at the B. A. A. Meet. It was too easy. Then, too, came the Alumni Dinner.

In March we sent a delegation of two to the Students' Convention at Toronto, and later a very different delegation of perhaps eighty Seniors departed for Boston and dined at Young's. We heard at the Tremont Theatre that "there is no King but Dodo," but everybody felt like a king on the return trip. Everybody was so happy — some too happy, so the faculty thought.

The Musical Clubs concerted pretty much all over the state this term, ending up with a very successful one-night stand in this town.

Andover could do no better than third in the Interscholastic Meet at Boston just before the Easter vacation.

SPRING TERM

Captain O'Brien's men opened the season with Maine the day after the term opened. Maine won, 11-7, but thereafter followed a series of successes, culminating (I like that word) in a close and glorious defeat by Harvard.

Early in the term the Philo-Forum debate took place. Forum was a little off forrum, and Philo pulled off ahead.

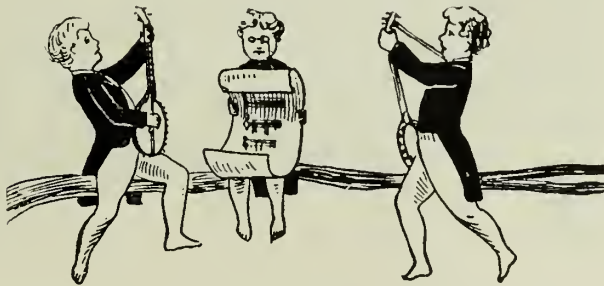

The Spring Meet soon followed, to determine the men to contest with Exeter. As it was a windy day, only one record was broken; but some good men were picked, as Exeter will testify. Then our athletes did good work at the Meet at Yale, and left the victory hanging between Andover and Worcester.

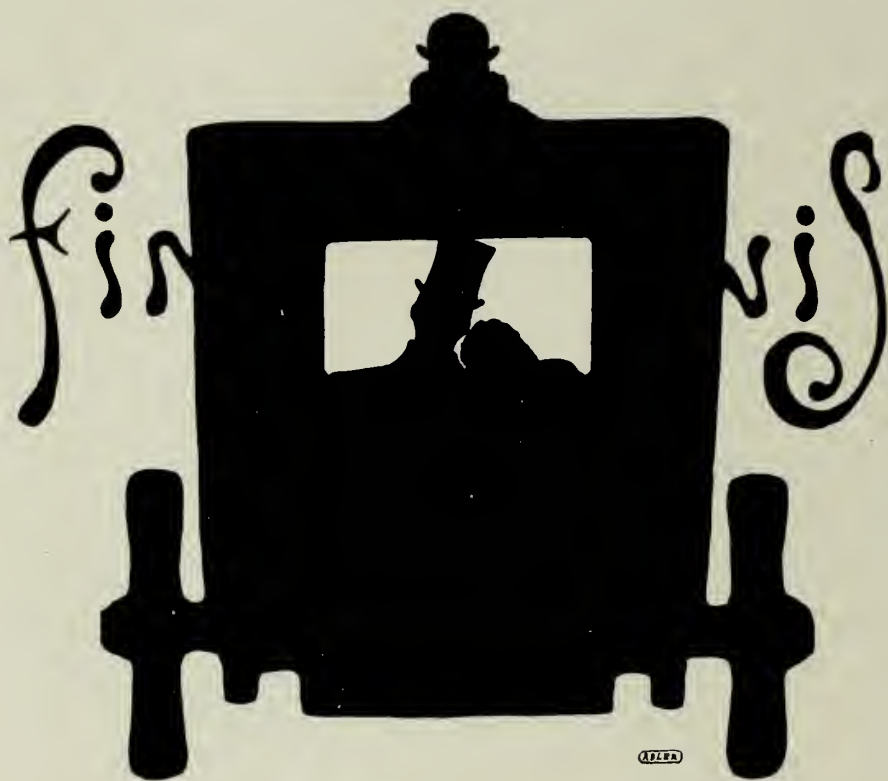

Baseball filled the rest of the term. A rather natural varsity slump followed three successive but honorable defeats by the three biggest of the Big Four, and Andover lost where it should have won.

Let's leave the Exeter game alone.

On the nineteenth of June school closes. Then comes Commencement, and those nightmares, College Exams. Then some say good-bye to Andover—these are the Yale, Harvard, and other college sub-freshmen. By far the greater part say only “au revoir.”

Phillips Academy

ANDOVER, MASSACHUSETTS

WILLIAM B. GRAVES + + + + Acting Principal

THE ACADEMY prepares large classes of young men for the Colleges, the Scientific Schools, and in some cases for the Professional Schools. Over one hundred candidates went to College last year.

The faculty consists of twenty professors and instructors.

The pupils last year numbered over four hundred, less than one half of whom were from New England, and the others from more distant places.

The new gymnasium, fully equipped with the latest and best apparatus, is now in use under the supervision of a competent director.

The Academy opened its new department of American Archaeology this year.

The next year begins September 10th, 1902, with vacations at Christmas and Easter.

The expenses vary from $250.00 to $500.00 a year, according to the accommodations selected

The income of benevolent funds and scholarship endowments amounts to five thousand dollars a year.

The present needs of the Academy are funds for teaching and for building, and for various current uses. For further information, and for copies of the annual catalogue, address
